

STORAHTELLING MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

Welcome to the 2008-2009 StorahCircle:

The StorahTelling Board of Directors invites you to be a part of StorahCircle, our membership program now in its third year. StorahCircle connects members with one of the most exciting organizations and some of the most innovative leaders in contemporary Jewish life: StorahTelling's diverse company of educators and artists, restoring ancient stories and traditions for new generations.

StorahCircle members contribute $2,000-$10,000 annually, per membership levels, and are invited to become active partners in the StorahTelling mission—advancing Judaic literacy and engagement.

StorahCircle members enjoy exclusive access to special programs throughout the year, including invitations to events showcasing new work, complimentary tickets to special performances and an ongoing private study salon taught at private homes and the Harmonie Club in NYC.

We are thrilled to announce two other exclusive events for StorahCircle members this year: a week-long Israel study trip in July, 2009, led by Amichai Lau-Lavie, StorahTelling's Founder, and a StorahCircle Shabbaton Weekend in Summer, 2009, to be held outside NYC.

STORAHCIRCLE STUDY SALON

The StorahCircle study salon is a unique opportunity to engage in a dynamic conversation, demonstrating the innovative StorahTelling methodology in which ancient texts are translated, interpreted and made accessible to modern times and personal reflection. This year, the StorahCircle study salon will be led by Amichai Lau-Lavie, our visionary founder, and guest teachers from the StorahTelling Board and Company, including Cynthia Nachmani, Peter Pitzele, Arthur Strimling, and leading educators in Jewish life.

In 2008-2009, we invite StorahCircle members to join Amichai and the StorahTelling leadership team on a journey into the PARDES, the mythic orchard that represents the classic Judaic system for the deconstruction of reality and the interpretation of our sacred legacy, from the literal to the allegorical, the global to the deeply personal.

Developed over the last 2,000 years, the PARDES literary system serves as the core methodology of the StorahTelling company. This coming year, while studying in Jerusalem, Amichai will be busy writing his book based on this technique and its modern relevance and application. Throughout the StorahCircle study year you will be invited to join Amichai for sneak previews of his writings, and share the exciting implications of this revived method for the contemporary significance of Judaic literacy and engagement.
